

WEEKLY SANTA FE NEW MEXICAN

VOL. 27, NO. 48

SANTA FE NEW MEXICO, THURSDAY, JUNE 15, 1916.

$1.00 PER YEAR

Wilson Note System Eulogized by Keynoter Glynn at St. Louis; William J. Bryan Placated; Democrats Adjourn Till Tomorrow

DEMOCRATS HAVE SAVED AMERICA FROM RUIN AND DESTRUCTION, IS GLYNN'S VIEW

Wilson Most Profound Statesman Since the Civil War

HEART OF PARTY SWELLS IN PRIDE

Keeping Out of War Follows Precedent Of Great Men

(By Leased Wire to New Mexican) COLISEUM, St. Louis, June 14.—"We have entered this hall as Democrats; let us deliberate as Americans," declared Mr. Glynn in sounding the keynote at the Democratic convention.

"It is the business of a convention representing every section of the United States, speaking for every racial strain in America, to send forth a message to all the world that will leave no room for doubt."

Reviewing President Wilson's conduct of foreign affairs, he declared the president had stood with Washington, Adams, and Grant, who had preserved peace with honor.

"For vain glory or for selfish purpose," Mr. Glynn declared, "others may cry for a policy of blood and iron; but the president has acted on the belief that the leader of a nation who plunges his people into an unnecessary war, like Pontius Pilate vainly washes his hands of innocent blood, while the earth quakes and the heavens are darkened and thousands give up the ghost."

"If Washington was right, if Jefferson was right, if Hamilton was right, then the president is right to day," he declared.

Senator Reed of Missouri, Senator Taggart of Indiana, and Senator Pomeroy of Ohio were appointed to escort Mr. Glynn to the chair.

Governor Glynn's declarations upon Americanism and that "the policy of the administration as to neutrality is as American as the American flag" were given a prolonged demonstration.

When the demonstration had been going on 15 minutes, appeals were made to the delegates to take their seats and let the speaker go on. They were answered by more noise. Finally, after sixteen minutes, quiet was restored and Mr. Glynn went on.

When Mr. Glynn predicted the reelection of President Wilson the delegates in a mass cheered, waving flags and whistling shrilly. Ex-Governor Glynn laughing, vainly tried to quiet the delegates, but they were determined to have their say.

Mr. Glynn's declaration for an undivided loyalty to the flag was cheered on the floor and in the galleries. His praise of the Underwood tariff law, the new federal reserve system, and other administration legislation was enthusiastically applauded. In the midst of his peroration the braying of a donkey disturbed Governor Glynn for a moment. The sound came through the windows from a stable in the rear. Evidently the governor regarded the braying as approval of the speaker's depreciation of war.

Mr. Glynn's declaration for an undivided loyalty to the flag was cheered on the floor and in the galleries. His praise of the Underwood tariff law, the new federal reserve system, and other administration legislation was enthusiastically applauded. In the midst of his peroration the braying of a donkey disturbed Governor Glynn for a moment. The sound came through the windows from a stable in the rear. Evidently the governor regarded the braying as approval of the speaker's depreciation of war.

When he had spoken one hour Mr. Glynn was half way through his prepared speech and he attempted to pass on to other subjects, but the delegates wanted more of the same subject.

"I can't stay on that all day," said Mr. Glynn. "I've got something else to tell you about."

"Go on, go on," came shouts from the crowd. "All right, I'll hit them hard," Glynn answered. "When he told how many presidents 'didn't go to war,' and settled the business by negotiations he was repeatedly cheered. Mr. Glynn proceeded to recite incidents in diplomatic history in which war was avoided by Republican presidents. As Glynn recounted each instance, some delegate would shout: 'What did the president do?'

"He settled our troubles by negotiations, just as the president is trying to do now," Mr. Glynn would reply.

Women delegates led a demonstration which followed Mr. Glynn's declaration that the present neutrality policy "satisfies the mothers of the land." The crowd forced Mr. Glynn to repeat part of his address, drowned in applause, in which he declared that the men of America "will fight and die for our flag when reason primes the rifle, when honor draws the sword, and when justice breathes

PRESIDENT LEADS 75000 MARCHERS IN PREPAREDNESS DEMONSTRATION

National Capital Makes Demand For Adequate Army and Navy

FLAG DAY PARADE HELD IN EL PASO

(By Leased Wire to New Mexican) Washington, June 14.—Led by President Wilson, carrying the Stars and Stripes, nearly seventy-five thousand men, women and children of Washington marched up broad Pennsylvania avenue today in a preparedness parade arranged to emphasize the national capital's demand for an adequate army and navy.

The president, attired in white trousers, blue coat and straw hat, and shouldering his flag like a musket, stepped briskly to martial airs played by the United States Marine Band. As the line swung around the Treasury Building at Fifteenth street and Pennsylvania avenue, the president was confronted by a huge banner bearing the legend "Be Prepared—if you care about ninety-one electoral votes, consider us—Woman's Party."

It was the work of the Congressional Union For Woman Suffrage. At noon the parade was still swinging past the reviewing stand, the hundreds of sixteen abreast platoons being broken at intervals by bands or floats. Men and women in almost equal numbers marched, each civilian contingent wearing some uniform costume. Floats from the navy yards carried giant torpedo tubes, a torpedo with its propeller whirling, a 12-inch model, and a battleship model. There also was an aeroplane and a wireless plant.

President Wilson in the reviewing stand remained standing practically throughout the parade and frequently waved his hat to officials he recognized. Each cabinet member in the parade fell out and took his place by the president as the reviewing stand was reached.

EL PASO PARADE STARTS WILD RUMOR IN JUAREZ El Paso, Texas, June 14.—Delegations of naturalized Mexicans and Chinese and American refugees from Mexico marched in a preparedness parade held here today to observe Flag Day. Several thousand persons representing at once all of the commercial, professional and civic interests of El Paso participated. The day was observed as a holiday, all business institutions being closed.

A wild rumor ran its course in Juarez to the effect that the parade was an anti-Mexican demonstration. One version had the Mexican consul a blessing on the cause that they uphold.

BRYAN APPLAUDS Another prolonged demonstration followed. From his desk, William J. Bryan joined, and his face flushed with emotion, a Texas delegate called out:

"Don't forget that his policy also satisfies William J. Bryan."

Mr. Bryan gazed intently at Glynn and enthusiastically clapped his hands in approval of the speaker's depreciation of war.

Mr. Glynn's declaration for an undivided loyalty to the flag was cheered on the floor and in the galleries. His praise of the Underwood tariff law, the new federal reserve system, and other administration legislation was enthusiastically applauded. In the midst of his peroration the braying of a donkey disturbed Governor Glynn for a moment. The sound came through the windows from a stable in the rear. Evidently the governor regarded the braying as approval of the speaker's depreciation of war.

KEYNOTER EXTRAVAGANT IN EXTOLLING DEMOCRACY St. Louis, Mo., June 14.—With the assertion that no president since the Civil War has had so crucial problems to solve; and no president has displayed a grasp more sure, a statesmanship more profound than President Wilson, Hon. Martin H. Glynn, former governor of New York, opened the Democratic national convention here today. Declaring that "Americanism and peace, preparedness and prosper-

Keynoter For Conversation As Means To Avert War

EX-GOVERNOR MARTIN H. GLYNN, OF NEW YORK, WHO DEFENDED WILSON TALK-POLICY AT DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION TODAY

REPUBLICANS HAVE CLOAKED INIQUITY WITH A JUDICIAL ROBE,--M'COMBS

Cloven Hoof of Special Interest Protrudes Notwithstanding

ROASTS TRADING WITH THE MOOSE

(By Leased Wire to New Mexican) COLISEUM, St. Louis, June 14.—Immediately after the prayer, Chairman McCombs delivered a brief address to the Democratic national convention.

A real demonstration greeted McCombs' declaration that "The elephant is dead, the moose is dead—long live the American eagle."

Bruce Kramer, secretary of the national committee, then read the formal call for the convention. When Chairman McCombs announced the temporary officers of the convention selected by the national committee, former Gov. Martin H. Glynn of New York, temporary chairman, was cheered. The full list of temporary officers was read and approved.

St. Louis, Mo., June 14.—In calling the Democratic national convention to order at noon today, Chairman Wm. F. McCombs of the Democratic national committee spoke as follows: "Ladies and gentlemen of the convention: We are in an atmosphere of victory. We have no feeling of guess, but a spirit of certainty. We meet to celebrate the marvelous achievements of the Democratic party since it came into power and to place a milestone upon the path of its future success."

"Over two thousand years ago there was related the fable of the frog who wanted to grow to the size of an elephant. Such was the ambition of his soul that his body swelled to marvelous proportions. Indeed, Aesop went so far as to predict that the frog, upon reaching the size of the elephant, would burst. I commend to your notice the wisdom of

RUSSIANS MAKING STEADY PROGRESS IN RAPID DRIVE UPON CZERNOWITZ

Communication Line of Austrians Cut North of City

SLAVS GET 6,000 MORE PRISONERS

(By Leased Wire to New Mexican) London, June 14.—Reports from the front indicate that the Russians are making substantial progress in their efforts to capture Czernowitz, the capital of Bukovina. A Reuter dispatch from Petrograd says the Russians have interrupted the Austrian communications by cutting the railway running north from Czernowitz. Heavy fighting is in progress on the outskirts of the city.

A wireless dispatch from Rome quotes the Russian ambassador to Italy to the effect that Russian cavalry has reached a point 20 miles beyond Czernowitz.

Further north the Russian forces have followed up their victories along the river Styx, and are steadily advancing to the northwest towards Vladimir Volynski. In this sector the Russians have covered the ground embraced in from half to two marches from the Rokitno-Lutsk line. Having reached the Stokhod river, the Russians are separated from Kovel, the vital center of the Teuton railway and road communication in this sector, by less than one-third the distance they covered during their crushing march westward from the Orla region.

BERLIN, AS USUAL, REPULSES RUSSIANS

Berlin, June 14.—The Russian offensive which has been directed against the southern portion of the eastern front, broke out yesterday against Field Marshal Von Hindenburg's forces at a point about 75 miles north of Pinsk. The Russians made several successive attacks with masses of infantry. The war office announcement of today says they were repulsed with heavy losses.

RUSSIANS AGAIN GET THOUSANDS OF PRISONERS

Petrograd, June 14.—In their advance upon Czernowitz, the capital of Bukovina, the Russians have occupied the village of Sniatyn, 20 miles northwest of the city, the war office announced today. In addition to their previous captures, the Russians have taken 20 officers, 6,000 men, six guns and ten machine guns.

ITALIANS REPULSE ATTACKS OF AUSTRIANS

Rome, June 14.—Austrian attacks along the line of the Posina in the southern Tyrol made after intense artillery preparations on Monday night, were everywhere repulsed by the Italians, the war office announced today.

VIOLENT ARTILLERY ENGAGEMENT AT VAUX

Paris, June 14.—A violent artillery engagement took place last night in the vicinity of Vaux, on the Verdun front. There were no infantry actions before Verdun, the official statement of today says. The French carried a small German post near Veniz east of Soissons.

BRITISH COLUMN ENTERS TOWN OF PERSIA

London, June 14.—A Reuter dispatch from Kermanshah says that Gen. Sicks with British column on Monday entered Kermanshah, the principal town of southeastern Persia.

GERMAN ARMED TRAWLERS REPORTED IN FIGHT

London, June 14 (7:25 p. m.).—A Reuter dispatch from Nykoping, Sweden, gives a report of a naval engagement in the Baltic between midnight and 1 o'clock this morning at a point near Hovenerge. It is supposed that six German armed trawlers, which were seen going northward last night were engaged. Two hundred shots were heard. The fight lasted for 45 minutes. A German trawler with five wounded men entered Nykoping this morning. All information was refused.

GOLD STRIKE IN MEXICO.

Guamajuto, Mexico, June 13, via Laredo, Texas, June 14.—A rich gold strike which runs nearly three and one-half pounds to the ton is reported to have been found near here.

NO JARRING NOTE WILL MAR TRANQUILLITY OF DEMOCRAT LOVE-FEAST

Anti-War Talk Brings Commoner Into Camp and He Will Make Speeches in Behalf of Nominee; Party Adopts "America First" Slogan of Republicans and Progressives

TWELVE THOUSAND PACK COLISEUM WHEN CONVENTION IS OPENED

PRESIDENT AGAIN RAPS HYPHENATES

(By Leased Wire to New Mexican) WASHINGTON, D. C., June 14.—In a Flag Day speech here today President Wilson declared that there were some foreign persons in the United States who were trying to levy a kind of political blackmail on the American political parties in the interest of foreign governments.

This, the president declared, must be stopped. He was sounding what some of his advisers said would be one of the issues of the coming presidential campaign.

Persons in the president's confidence said his ideas about the political activities of foreign-born citizens would be the basis of a plank in the platform to be adopted by the St. Louis convention.

Col. Roosevelt Has Severe Coughing Spell

New York, June 14.—Reports today that Theodore Roosevelt was seriously ill apparently proved unfounded. He has been experiencing coughing spells recently, and in a statement regarding an attack of pain suffered while he was at a pier early in the day, owing to the arrival of his son, Kermit, from South America, the colonel explained that his coughing probably strained a ligament. An X-ray examination will be made probably tonight.

"One year ago," the colonel said, "I broke one of my ribs in the left side while riding. The horse fell and threw me. The coughing spells probably strained a ligament. It is ridiculous, but painful. So, like King Kong, I arch my neck and walk lightly."

The former president held a political conference at his hotel with two Progressive leaders, Raymond J. Robins, who was chairman of the National convention, and Harold I. Ickes, national committeeman of Illinois. The colonel would not talk politics.

Jose Refugio Lucero Granted a Pardon

Jose Refugio Lucero, who was convicted of second degree murder in Taos county in May, 1911; who was committed at that time but who later secured a new trial and was re-sentenced in May, 1913, on account being taken of the time he had already served in the penitentiary, was granted a conditional pardon by Governor McDonald today. Under the terms of the pardon he must refrain from alcoholic liquors for a year; conduct himself in a law-abiding manner, and report to the penitentiary superintendent once a month.

PLAY NO POLITICS. COMMAND OF WILSON

Washington, D. C., June 14.—Efforts to insert a plank in the Democratic platform favoring a law to prohibit federal judges from leaving the bench to accept elective office will not be countenanced by President Wilson. Administration officials let it be known that the president had sent word to St. Louis that he did not want any politics played.

NEW DOMINICAN PRESIDENT

Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, June 14.—The senate today designated Jacinto De Castro president of the republic, in succession to President Jimenez. His name was sent to the chamber of deputies for approval.